1980 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

INFORMATION FOR THE WORKING PRESS. . . .

It is a pleasure to present the 1980 University of Alabama football media guide, primarily a working tool for the members of the news media.

In planning your coverage of Alabama's home games, you are urged to review the following items:

WORKING TICKETS: We request that you write early to acquire press credentials for Alabama's home games in Tuscaloosa and Birmingham. If time permits, we will mail your tickets. If not, they will be left at a special will-call window. In Tuscaloosa, it is the Gate 3 ticket window next to the press box elevator. In Birmingham, it is Gate 7-A beside the new administrative offices in the South endzone. No children or non-workers are allowed in the press box.

AUBURN GAME: This year is Alabama's year to serve as host for the annual Alabama-Auburn game. Press credentials for this game should be included in your request for other Alabama home games.

FOR PRESS: A seating chart will be posted at the entrance to the working press level to aid you in finding your assigned seat. However, your ticket will have your row and seat number written on it.

WRITERS: Anyone desiring telephones installed at their seat should make this known at the time when you request credentials so that we can coordinate the installation of your phone with the phone company. Individual orders for telephones must be made through your business office with the telephone company in your city. Writers needing use of a telephone after the game will find special phones available for telecopier and dictation use, but on a first-come basis.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Field passes are limited to daily newspapers, wire service photographers and sports magazines.

SERVICES: Complete team and individual statistics, running play-by-play and post-game coaches quotes are provided. Player quotes normally are not furnished.

INTERVIEWS: Coach Bryant will conduct a post-game press conference approximately 10 minutes after each game. And normally, writers are allowed to interview players in the dressing room. Your regular press box pass admits you into the press conference and dressing room.

FOOD SERVICE: Once again, Big Al Topazi will serve as the official host for catering the press in the press box. Recognized nationally for his outstanding press box food service, "Big Al" and his crew arrive eight hours prior to the game in order to have everything ready.

Your hosts for Alabama football are Charley Thornton and Gary Stogner. Please call if you have any particular requests or problems.

1980 UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

The University of Alabama football team will have to mature quickly in order to stand up against the challenges it faces in 1980. Heading into the season opener, the Crimson Tide hopes to maintain the nation's longest winning streak, has another Southeastern Conference championship to defend and a chance to make history.

Making history will involve winning another National Championship. But that's the goal of every team that head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant puts on the field. Alabama, winner of the 1978 and 1979 national titles, is shooting for three straight, something no team has ever accomplished.

Nebraska tried it and failed, seeing its 1970 and 1971 string ended by Southern Cal in 1972. Oklahoma, winner of the 1974 and 1975 titles, was foiled when Pittsburgh carted off the 1976 crown.

The Crimson Tide fought its way through the 1979 season in 12-0 fashion, capping it off with a 24-9 victory over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. It marked the first time an Alabama team had gone 12-0 in a season and the Tide's winning streak extended to a school record 21-straight games.

But graduation cut deeply into the arsenal which saw a Bryant-coached Crimson Tide win its sixth national championship battle.

Gone are several of the gems which shined brightest in the Tide's last two national championship crowns. Missing are names like Dwight Stephenson, Vince Boothe, Mike Brock, Jim Bunch, Buddy Aydelette, Tim Travis, Keith Pugh, Steve Whitman, Steadman Shealy, David Hannah, Curtis McGriff, Wayne Hamilton, Don McNeal and others.

Twenty-one lettermen graduated from last year's team including the entire offensive line, half of the offensive backfield and several stand-outs on defense for the past three seasons.

However, Alabama has 38 lettermen returning this year including a sizable amount of muscle and speed on a defense which led the nation in practically every category last season. While returning experience on defense must be considered the team's major strength, and that's where most coaches prefer it, the offense faces a major reconstruction job.

With eight starters and several key reserves returning on defense, it was little wonder that it dominated the offense throughout spring training. Back to reclaim their starting jobs are middle guard Warren Lyles, tackle Byron Braggs, end E. J. Junior, linebackers Randy Scott and Thomas Boyd, cornerback Ricky Tucker and safeties Jim Bob Harris and Tommy Wilcox. Junior, Braggs, Boyd, Wilcox and Harris earned All-SEC honors last year. But don't be surprised if Wilcox, the SEC's Freshman Player of the Year last year, isn't a strong contender at quarterback also. He was moved there late last spring because of the uncertainty at that position.

Gary DeNiro and John Mauro are experienced and tested under fire at defensive end. More help at that position should come from sophomores Mike Pitts and Russ Wood, who was moved there from linebacker. Robbie Jones, a returning letterman and sophomore who played plenty last year, will figure into the linebacker picture. Others slated for playing time at linebacker are sophomores Ricky Rozzell and Eddie Lowe. Overall, Coach Bryant appears pleased with the depth at both linebacker spots.

Jackie Cline, one of the most improved players in the spring, will compete for the other defensive tackle spot along with Scott Homan. John Elias and Randy Edwards should provide depth at middle guard.

There is also some depth and experience in the defensive secondary with Tucker, Harris and Wilcox returning. Also back is senior letterman Mike Clements, who also has starting experience. Sophomore Jeremiah Castille could break into the line-up as a starting cornerback as could Ken Coley, a return specialist last year who missed the second half of the season because of knee surgery. More help in the secondary could come from Josh Henderson, Al Blue, Jerrill Sprinkle and Benny Perrin although they have limited varsity experience.

For the second consecutive year, the success of Alabama's wishbone offense might hinge on the strength of a surgered knee. Last year, Steadman Shealy was the question mark. He responded with an almost remarkable performance which earned him All-SEC honors. This year, the knee in question belongs to Don Jacobs.

Jacobs was Shealy's top replacement last year. From the season opener against Georgia Tech until the Mississippi State game when he first was injured, Jacobs moved the offense well. He was the team's fourth leading rusher with 448 yards and three touchdowns even though he missed almost three complete games. After experiencing a "change in direction" injury against Mississippi State, he sat out the next two games. He went in against Auburn for a few plays and re-injured the knee, had surgery two days later and missed spring practice.

During the spring, Alan Gray and Michael Landrum alternated at quarterback along with Greg Haynes. Gray was impressive at times, but missed the latter part of the spring because of a muscle pull. With a little more than a week left in spring practice, Wilcox moved to quarterback, a position where he starred in high school.

But the question at quarterback isn't the only problem on offense. With halfbacks Major Ogilvie and Billy Jackson the only two returning starters, the search continues for a top replacement at fullback and an offensive line.

Ogilvie is the team's top returning rusher and scorer. In spite of being slowed by injuries, he rushed for 512 yards and nine touchdowns last year. Ogilvie, an All-SEC performer last year, won the Miller-Dighby Trophy as the most valuable player in the Sugar Bowl, edging running mate Jackson by one-half of a point.

Ogilvie's name also cropped up at quarterback during the spring. He worked some at quarterback in what Coach Bryant called "an insurance measure."

Jackson, the team's sixth leading rusher last year with 230 yards, ripped the Arkansas defense for 120 yards in the Sugar Bowl. During his career, he has also played some at fullback, making him a valuable swingman. Five lettermen return to provide depth at halfback. They are Joe Jones, Mark Nix, James Haney, Jeff Fagan and Ken Simon. Fagan and Simon are blessed with breakaway speed and Simon ran the first leg of Alabama's record setting 400-meter relay team at last spring's SEC championship track meet.

Senior Mitch Ferguson and John Hill are the leading candidates at fullback. Both lettered last year. Ferguson, like Jackson, can alternate at either fullback or halfback.

At the end of spring practice, Coach Bryant felt the team didn't have an offensive line which could win in the SEC. But he's hoping that there will be some pleasant surprises there this fall.

Lettermen Keith Marks and Tim Clark return at split end. Marks stepped into a starting role last year when Keith Pugh injured a shoulder at mid-season. Also moved to split end was Earl Collins, a player with plenty of ability who was a running back on the junior varsity last year. Darryl White is another candidate at split end.

Junior Bart Krout and sophomore Larry Brown, both lettermen, are vying for the starting tight end job. Collins also worked at that position in the spring.

Four lettermen return at offensive tackle including seniors Eddie McCombs, Vince Cowell, Bill Searcey and sophomore Joe Beazley who was moved from defense. Bob Cayavec, a converted middle guard, was impressive at tackle during the spring.

Senior Scott Allison and sophomore Gary Bramblett are the only two lettermen at guard. But Searcey also worked there during the spring as did Beazley. Sophomore Doug Collins, a starter on the junior varsity who also saw limited action with the varsity last year, moved into contention for a starting guard spot.

Senior Joe Robbins is the lone letterman at center. But also competing for that job are sophomores Steve Mott and Denny Merritt who both played on the junior varsity last year.

Senior Woody Umphrey returns as the Tide's punter for the third consecutive year. He averaged 37.2 yards per punt last year and opponents managed only 57 yards of returns all season. With the graduation of record-setting place kicker Alan McElroy, that job is wide open. Top contenders for kicking specialist duties are University of Hawaii transfer Peter Kim, sophomore Paul Trodd, the leading scorer on the junior varsity last year and Johnny Brooker, the outstanding performer in the A-Day game who kicked field goals of 37, 33 and 46 yards. Tim Clark is likely to handle kickoff duties.

There is always the possibility that the Crimson Tide coaching staff will find immediate help from incoming freshmen.

Coach Bryant's staff of assistant coaches this year includes assistant head coach and defensive coordinator Ken Donahue, offensive coordinator Mal Moore, Sylvester Croom, K. J. Lazenby, Bobby Marks, Louis Campbell, Bryant Pool, Dee Powell, Jeff Rouzie, Jack Rutledge, Shorty White and Perry Willis.

The Crimson Tide's schedule this year opens Sept. 6 in Birmingham's Legion Field against Georgia Tech. Afterward, Alabama travels to Jackson to play Ole Miss on Sept. 20, Vanderbilt in Tuscaloosa on Sept. 27, Kentucky in Birmingham on Oct. 4, Rutgers in East Rutherford on Oct. 11, Tennessee in Knoxville on Oct. 18, Southern Mississippi in Tuscaloosa for homecoming on Oct. 25, Mississippi State in Jackson on Nov. 1, Louisiana State in Tuscaloosa on Nov. 8, Notre Dame in Birmingham on Nov. 15 and Auburn in Birmingham on Nov. 29. All games will start at 1:30 PM local time, except for Rutgers (1:30 Eastern) and Tennessee (2:00 Eastern), barring time changes to accommodate television coverage.

A QUICK LOOK AT ALABAMA'S PROBABLE DEPTH CHART

Three things to remember: 1) This is not necessarily an exact ranking of players but a listing of those likely to have a chance to see action. 2) No attempt has been made to include any signees in the chart, although the pattern has been established that some freshmen will see action with the varsity. 3) It is possible that someone not listed on the chart will break into the starting lineup.

SCOTT ALLISON

Scott Allison

Offensive Guard — Born March 26, 1959 — 6-1, 242, Senior, Two Letters, Titusville, Florida — Played for Coach Jay Donnelly at Astronaut High School — Majoring in Business Administration — Scott was a number one reserve at guard last year, playing behind Mike Brock on the left side. He has more playing experience than any other interior lineman on offense as he played 311 snaps last season. Scott finished the spring as a leading candidate for a starting position. Earned his first letter in 1978 after bouncing back from appendicitis which sidelined him during spring training that year. As a freshman, Scott played with the junior varsity. He was a two-time all-state, all-Central Florida Region and all-conference player in high school. In high school, he played both guard and tackle on offense and saw some time as an end, tackle and line-backer on defense. He was captain of his team as a senior and also earned three varsity letters in track as a discus thrower and shot putter. Scott's father, Jimmy, played football at Auburn in 1949-50 and his brother Mark played for former Tider Richard Williamson at Memphis State. His younger brother Brian is a sophomore offensive lineman at Georgia Tech.

Offensive Tackle — Born January 21, 1960 — 6-5, 223, Sophomore, One Letter, Woodbridge, Virginia — Played for Coach Bill Holtzclaw at Woodbridge High School — Majoring in Business — Although he lettered last year as a top reserve at defensive tackle, Joe was moved to offense during the spring after graduation had claimed the entire starting unit. He finished up the spring on offense, but earlier had worked on both lines and at one time, was a strong contender for a starting job on both sides. He made nine total tackles last year as a red-shirt freshman. Sat out the 1978 season under the NCAA's short-lived freshman redshirt rule. He was a four-year high school letterman at offensive and defensive tackle. As a senior, he was captain of the team, all-county, all-district and all-region as an offensive tackle, first-team all-state on offense and second-team all-state as a defensive tackle. A high school All-America, Joe was the Washington Touchdown Club's suburban Virginia player of the year. During his high school career, his teams posted a 36-6-1 record. His career started as a split end his sophomore season, but halfway through the season he was moved to the defensive secondary where he remained. He intercepted five passes as a senior and averaged six tackles per game. He was all-conference as a junior and senior and also rated as one of the state's top basketball players.

Al Blue

Offensive Tackle — Born May 16, 1958 — 6-4, 265— Senior, Northport — Played for Coach Bob Taylor at Tuscaloosa County High School — Majoring in Business Education — A candidate for one of the offensive line vacancies, Thomas moved to offense last year after playing defensive tackle and middle guard with the 1976 and 1977 junior varsity. He moved into a starting position during the pre-season and earned first-team All-SEC and third-team Associated Press All-America honors. He led the team in total tackles with 92 (67 individual and 25 assists) and tackles against the run with 89 (64 individual and 25 assists). He had five tackles for losses of 10 yards, caused two fumbles and had one quarterback sack.

While in Germany, he learned to play soccer and later earned one letter on Lee's soccer team. He also lettered one year in track. All of his tackles were against the run. He also knocked down three passes, leading the defensive line in that category. Byron had two quarterback sacks, pressured the passer seven times and made four tackles for losses of 18 yards. As a sophomore, he was in on 28 tackles (17 individual and 11 assists) and had two tackles for losses of 11 yards. Byron made three individual tackles and assisted on three others in last year's Sugar Bowl game against Arkansas. The year before, he finished fifth in the balloting for the Sugar Bowl MVP against Penn State. In that game, he made seven tackles including two quarterback sacks for 36 yards in losses. During pre-season practice before his freshman season, Byron suffered a harrowing experience. Following the team's first practice in full pads, Byron suffered a heat stroke which resulted in him missing the early part of the season. He came back during the latter part of the 1977 season and made 15 tackles, knocked down a pass and caused a fumble. He was a high school All-America, all-state, Super All-State and all-city player. ### DON JACOBS

Quarterback — Born December 6, 1958 — 6-2, 180, Senior, One Letter, Scottsboro — Played for Coach Larry Keys at Scottsboro High School — Majoring in Education — The heir apparent to the crucial quarterback job, Don is the man everyone will be watching this fall as the Crimson Tide prepares to defend its national championship. As was the case with graduated all-SEC quarterback Steadman Shealy last year, Don's knee is in question since it's on the mend from post-season surgery. Don lettered last year as Steadman's top replacement and went into fire early during the 1979 season. He got off to a great start by engineering a scoring drive in the season opener against Georgia Tech. He injured his knee against Mississippi State, rested until the Auburn game when he injured it again then had surgery two days later. The knee injury put Don out of activity for the first time in his career as he had never even missed a practice session until that time. He rushed for 448 yards on 73 carries last year for a fine 6.1 yards per carry average and three touchdowns. He also completed 10 of 23 passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns. His top rushing performance came against Florida last year when he finished with 122 yards including a 73-yard touchdown run, the team's longest of the season. Don also was called to handle punting duties in short situations last year. He punted once for 16 yards last year and in 1978, he punted three times for a 21.0 average. He played sparingly at quarterback with the varsity in 1978 as the No. 3. quarterback. During spring practices in 1978 and 1979, he worked mostly with the defensive secondary. At one time, he was almost moved permanently to defense. But injuries at the quarterback position made it necessary to move Don back into that spot. He played on the junior varsity in 1977 and 1978. In 1977, he rushed 30 times for 101 yards and hit seven passes for 60 yards with the JV. In 1978, when playing with the junior varsity, Don led the team in rushing with 198 yards on 30 carries and completed 13 passes for 172 yards and two touchdowns. He was also the JV's top punter in 1977, averaging 38.2 yards on 24 punts. In high school, Don amassed more than 2,000 yards total offense as a wishbone quarterback. He rushed for 823 yards and passed for 1,200 yards. He averaged 41 yards per punt and as the team's placekicker, he hit 33 of 35 extra points and a 42-yard field goal. In addition to being all-state, he was the MVP for his region. He earned 14 high school letters — four in football, basketball and baseball and two in track. ## Bryant Is 19 Wins Away From All-Time Record

Paul "Bear" Bryant has become the dominant coaching figure in all of football, and as he moves closer to the all-time collegiate record for victories, the media attention given this historic pursuit should showcase Alabama's Crimson Tide ever more than usual.

Bryant has 296 coaching victories in 35 seasons and needs 19 more to break Amos Alonzo Stagg's record of 314.

But before the legendary Bear can pull even with Stagg, he also has to pass Glenn "Pop" Warner who has 313 wins. Stagg coached for 57 years in getting his 314 victories while Warner took 44 seasons to reach 313. Bryant's average of 8.5 wins per season is far greater than Stagg's 5.5 or Warner's 7.1.

If recent history is any indication, Bryant will pass Stagg's mark late in the 1981 season.

Bryant-coached Tide teams have averaged 10.6 wins a season during the last eight years. Last year, he became the first coach in NCAA history to win 100 games in a decade. During the '70s, Bryant's teams knocked out a 103-16-1 record, the best in the nation.

But Coach Bryant's comment on the matter is that coaches don't win games, players do. He says his record is simply a reflection on all the outstanding players he has been fortunate enough to coach during his stops at Maryland, Kentucky, Texas A&M and Alabama.

Coach Bryant's 35-year coaching record is 296-77-16, a winning percentage of .781. In 22 seasons at Alabama, Bryant's record is an amazing 205-38-8, an average of 9.3 victories a season and a winning percentage of .833.

PAUL WILLIAM "BEAR" BRYANT

The football world watches in amazement as University of Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant builds on his legendary reputation. As he nears the all-time record for football victories, Coach Bryant passes milestones and breaks records which may never again be threatened.

Until last season, no collegiate coach in history had ever won 100 or more games in a decade. But during the Seventies, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide carved out a 103-16-1 record, the nation's best. Bud Wilkinson had previously held the record with 93 wins during the Fifties.

But there is one mark still standing. With the 1978 and 1979 National Championships safely tucked away, Coach Bryant is shooting for his third consecutive title. Winning three straight is something else no one has ever done.

Coach Bryant's 35-year head coaching record is an astounding 296-77-16, for a .781 winning percentage. In 22 seasons at Alabama, he has a 205-38-8 record and an .833 winning percentage.

He is 19 victories away from breaking Amos Alonzo Stagg's all-time record of 314.

Stagg won those 314 games over a 57-year period. Also ahead of Coach Bryant on the list is Glenn "Pop" Warner, who had 313 victories in a 44-year career.

Coach Bryant has averaged 8.5 wins over his 35-year career and 9.3 during his tenure at Alabama. However, in the last nine seasons, Coach Bryant's average-wins-per-season is an impressive 10.8. In the last nine seasons, he has won 12 games once, 11 games six times, 10 games once and nine games one season.

Alabama capped its first 12-0 with a 24-9 victory over Arkansas in last year's Sugar Bowl. It also marked the sixth time a Bryant-coached Crimson Tide had been crowned National Champions. Other national titles had come in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973 and 1978.

The Tide was everyone's choice as the nation's best in 1979. Among those who voted the Tide on top were Associated Press, United Press International, Football Writers Association of America, the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, the New York Times, the Atlanta Journal and Football News.

Coach Bryant has long passed the Southeastern Conference record of 190 wins by a head coach set by Johnny Vaught. He has 199 at Alabama and another 60 while coaching at Kentucky for a combined total of 259. His overall record in the SEC is 259-61-13. Ralph "Shug" Jordan had 175 wins at Auburn and Wally Butts had 140 at Georgia.

Every honor a man in his profession can earn has been awarded to him. Coach Bryant has been selected National Coach of the Year three times and SEC Coach of the Year seven times. He was honored as SEC Coach of the Century and the NCAA picked him as Coach of the Decade for the 1960s.

His coaching career has spanned five decades — the 1940s, 1950s, 1960s, 1970s and 1980s. With Stagg's record in sight, Coach Bryant intends on coaching "at least three more years."

Born September 11, 1913 near Fordyce, Arkansas in the hamlet of Moro Bottom, Bryant came from a proud but poor family of 11 brothers and sisters. Moro Bottom is described by Bryant as "a little piece of bottom land on the Moro Creek, about seven miles south of Fordyce."

He played in the first football game he ever saw. A local cobbler put cleats on his only pair of shoes for that game. He played offensive and defensive tackle for the Fordyce High School Redbugs and gained some notoriety because of his size and aggressiveness. He was eventually recruited for Alabama by the late Hank Crisp.

At Alabama he became "the other end" because of the great Don Hutson who was also a member of those Alabama teams that went 23-3-2 during three years. Coach Bryant was a member of the 1934 team that defeated Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl.

A 1936 graduate of Alabama, Bryant's coaching career was launched at his alma mater. He served four years as a Tide assistant under Frank Thomas then went to Vanderbilt for two years under Red Sanders. After the 1941 season, he volunteered for duty with the U.S. Navy.

He was discharged from the Navy in time to take the head coaching job at Maryland in 1945. In his first season, the Terrapins went 6-2-1. He left for the University of Kentucky under cries of protest. In eight seasons at Kentucky, his teams went 60-23-5, won the only SEC title in Wildcat history and played in four post-season bowls.

Texas A&M called in 1954. In his first of four seasons as the Aggies head coach, Bryant experienced the only losing season of his career. That 1954 Texas A&M went 1-9 but the following three seasons were a different story. The Aggies had a record of 24-9-2 in the time, won the Southwest Conference championship and produced a Heisman Trophy winner in John David Crow.

Coach Bryant's alma mater beckoned in 1958 and he has enriched even more Alabama's football tradition. In addition to his 205-38-8 record over the last 22 years, the Crimson Tide has won a dozen SEC titles. Counting the one he won at Kentucky and another at Texas A&M, Bryant has 14 conference championship seasons behind him.

He was SEC Coach of the Year in 1961, 1964, 1971, 1973, 1974, 1977 and 1979 and National Coach of the Year in 1961, 1971 and 1973.

In February, he received the prestigious National Commander's Public Relations Award from the American Legion. He is the first person from athletics to receive the award.

Coach Bryant has personally taken part in 28 bowl games — 26 as a head coach, one as a player and the other as an assistant coach. Last year's Sugar Bowl was the 21st consecutive bowl appearance by a Bryant-coached Crimson Tide and the team's 33rd appearance overall. Both are national records.

One thing which Coach Bryant is proudest of is that 42 of his former players or assistant coaches have become head coaches in college or professional football.

He is married to the former Mary Harmon Black and they are the parents of two children — Paul Bryant, Jr. and Mrs. John (Mae Martin) Tyson, III. Coach and Mrs. Bryant have five grandchildren.

HOW THE "CRIMSON TIDE" GOT ITS NAME

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football the team was listed simply as the "varsity" of the "Crimson White" after the school colors. First nickname to become popular and to be used by the headline writers of the era was the "Thin Red Line." This cognomen was first employed during the coaching regime of J.W.H. Pollard, between 1906 and 1909. Dr. Pollard, now living in Groveland, Mass., credits Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald, as originator of the name. "Crimson Tide" supplanted the "Thin Red Line" as Alabama's nickname either during the 1917 or 1919 season. It was used in a student paper headline in November, 1919, but Birmingham papers used the term earlier. Zipp Newman, sports editor of the Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

FOOTBALL'S ORIGIN AT ALABAMA

"Mr. W. G. Little, of Livingston, Ala., was the first man to introduce football at the University. Mr. Little had been a student at Andover, Mass., and went to the University (of Alabama) carrying his uniform and a great bag of enthusiasm for the game in 1892. A number of students joined in with him in the season beginning in October of that year."—Crimson White (Student Paper), Nov. 25, 1926.

Alabama's first game was played in Birmingham on Friday afternoon, Nov. 11, 1892, at the old Lakeview Park. Opposition was furnished by a picked team from Professor Taylor's school and Birmingham high schools, with Alabama winning, 56-0. Early teams were a bit tougher than current squads, it seems, as the following afternoon Alabama played the Birmingham Athletic Club, losing 5-4 when Ross, of B. A. C., kicked a 65 yard field goal. Impossible though it may seem, this field goal was listed as a collegiate record at one time and Birmingham papers of the day featured its distance in writeups of the game.

The gridiron sport rapidly caught the students' fancy and the game became a favorite with University athletes. In 1896 the University's board of trustees passed a rule forbidding athletic teams from traveling off the campus. The following season only one game was played and in 1898 football was abandoned at Alabama. Student opposition to the ruling was so strong that the trustees lifted the travel ban and football was resumed in 1899, to continue without interruption until the first World War forced cancellation of the 1918 games.

Alabama first gained national recognition in 1922 when the University of Pennsylvania was defeated, 9-7, in Philadelphia. The following season Wallace Wade became head coach and in 1925 led the Crimson Tide to its first undefeated and untied season and its first Rose Bowl invitation. On Jan. 1, 1926, an unheralded, underrated team from Tuscaloosa came from behind to upset Washington State, 20-19, in the Rose Bowl and establish a precedent of colorful play that recent Crimson Tide teams have continued to uphold.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL LETTERMEN 1892 TO PRESENT

Following is a list of all-time Alabama football lettermen. Information listed should include, name, position, hometown (at that time), and years lettered. If a player earned first team All-America status, it is denoted with a ★ star before his name. If he was All-Southern Conference or All-Southeastern Conference, it is listed after his name. The following information required many, many hours of research and digging, and the University is indebted to Mr. Jeff Coleman, the Alumni Office, the Gorgas Library and many individuals for providing assistance. We solicit corrections and additions, and please contact the Alabama Sports Information Office about any changes. Charley Thornton, Assistant Athletic Director.

ALABAMA'S TV SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Twenty-five times Alabama players have been named the outstanding offensive and defensive player of the game in Chevrolet's special $1,000 scholarship program on ABC-TV telecasts.

The program, which provides money for the schools' general scholarship fund, began in 1971. In each case, a scholarship is awarded to the school in the athlete's name.

Over the years, $25,000 has been won by Crimson Tide athletes for the University's overall scholarship program. None of the money is used in any form for athletics.

The following is a list of Alabama's "player of the game" honorees:

TIDE MOVING TOWARD 600TH VICTORY

On Thanksgiving night, 1973, the University of Alabama became the eighth team in intercollegiate history to win 500 football games when it downed LSU, 21-7, on national television.

The Crimson Tide has a won-lost record of 566 victories, only 195 losses and 41 ties in 85 years. That figures to a .731 winning percentage. Alabama is 34 wins away from the 600 mark.

Here are some milestone Tide victories over the years:

ALABAMA BASKETBALL 1980-81

The 1980-81 season marks the beginning of a new era for the University of Alabama basketball team as Winfrey "Wimp" Sanderson takes over the reins of the Crimson Tide program.

Sanderson, who served the program as an assistant coach for two decades, succeeded C. M. Newton as head coach last April. Newton moved to an administrative position with the Southeastern Conference after compiling a 211-123 record in 12 seasons at Alabama.

Alabama lost only one starter off last year's 18-12 team which advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Gone is guard Robert Scott, one of two Tide players named to last year's coaches' All-SEC Team.

Returning to starting assignments are 6-7 senior forward Ken Johnson, 6-7 junior forward Eddie Phillips, 6-9 junior center Phillip Lockett and 6-4 sophomore guard Mike Davis. Phillips, the team's leading scorer and rebounder last year, was also an All-SEC performer.

Phillips averaged 16.7 points and 11.4 rebounds per game last year, ranking him among conference leaders in both categories. He trailed only Rickey Brown of Mississippi State in rebounding. And with Brown graduated, Phillips is back as the SEC's top rebounder.

Johnson, the team's only senior, will be starting for the fourth consecutive season. A fine outside shooter, Johnson averaged 14.7 points and 5.5 rebounds last year.

Lockett, one of the league's most improved players last year, finished the year with a 6.6 scoring and 7.4 rebounding average in his first season as a starter. Davis worked his way into a starting role after 11 games and averaged 5.4 points while earning a reputation as a rugged defensive player.

Other returning lettermen include junior guard Eddie Adams (7.1 ppg), sophomore forward Cliff Windham (2.2 ppg), sophomore guard Vance Wheeler (0.7 ppg), sophomore forward Eugene Jones (1.4 ppg), junior center Maurice Myers (0.9 ppg) and junior guard Reggie Strickland (0.7 ppg).

Adams, a starter early in the season, spelled Scott and Davis at both guard positions and is a fine outside shooter. Windham played an important role as a reserve player inside in all 30 games.

Alabama is counting on immediate help from 6-7 forward Desi Barmore, a transfer from Southeast Missouri State who was redshirted last year. Barmore is considered to be a good shooter and leaper and an exceptional ball handler.

The Tide's recruiting season last spring would have to be rated as a fine one. Incoming talent includes Terry Williams (6-8), the state's MVP for small schools, Sammy Randolph (6-3), an all-state guard from New Jersey and Eric Richardson (6-3), an all-state guard from Birmingham.

BOWL INCOME JUMPS ANOTHER TWO MILLION

Record payoffs by 12 post-season bowls pushed more than $18 million into collegiate athletics after the 1979 regular season as bowl income continued to increase again.

The 30 schools that appeared in the 15 NCAA approved post-season games realized the biggest payoff out of the $18,053,087.38 paid, although schools from conferences had to share their money with non-bowl members.

The biggest payoff and crowd once again was the Rose Bowl. The Rose Bowl's payoff jumped more than $100,000 to $4,399,184 last year and had an audience of 105,629 on hand. The Cotton Bowl had the second largest payoff at $3,448,266, with the Orange third at $2,590,796.88 and the Sugar Bowl was fourth at $2,011,165.20.

The Sugar Bowl was one of four post-season games which set attendance records last year. A crowd of 77,484 was on hand in the Superdome as national champion Alabama defeated Arkansas 24-9. Other bowls with record attendance figures were the Peach (58,933), Hall of Fame (65,041) and Garden State (54,410).

The Sugar Bowl crowd was the second largest of the 15 bowls.

The two newest bowl games—the Holiday Bowl in San Diego and the Garden State Bowl in New Jersey—both showed growth in their second seasons. Both recorded record payoffs.

Here are the bowl payoffs for the last four years, according to the best information available.
